EXCEL Donates to Scholarship Fund

CINCINNATI—The Nonprofit Leadership Institute of Greater Cincinnati's EXCEL Class 9 donated $550 for a scholarship fund for future EXCEL applicants. Inspired by the EXCEL trainers, the recently graduated class will offer a scholarship to provide the opportunity for a nonprofit leader, who otherwise could not financially afford it, to develop their leadership skills through the program.

The EXCEL program is an eight-month leadership development and skills training program for nonprofit high-level managers and executive directors. EXCEL was designed to enrich the management capabilities of individuals inspired to lead nonprofit organizations in the Greater Cincinnati region. Executive Service Corps of Cincinnati provides faculty and coaches for EXCEL participants along with guest speakers and presenters from some of the area's top corporations.
